Ahmad Ibraheem

Front-End Developer · UI Specialist · AI-powered Web Apps

// PROFILE

Front-end developer focused on responsive web apps, interactive AI-powered tools and clean interface design. I build with React, Next.js and TypeScript, connect interfaces to REST APIs, and manage client-side state with Redux Toolkit. My work includes a medical-center platform, an AI tool for learning code, and a smart tourism platform that earned 94/100 as a graduation project.
